Both courses will relate art to history and to Christian faith. The group will be housed at Regent's Park College, taking their meals in the College Hall. They will have access to the study facilities of the University as well. The session will be a special extension of our Seminary summer school and will carry five hours credit at Southeastern.

The fifth annual Scoggin-Parham study tour to the Holy Land is scheduled for February 18-27, 1975. This is a top deluxe tour, with the very finest advantages of study and travel. As before, some time in Rome is possible as an option. The tour this year (round trip from New York) will cost $999. Dr. Scoggin enriches the study tour immensely due to his 22 years' experience in the Holy Land as a missionary, an archaeologist, and a teacher. Two hours Seminary credit is available for tour participants who desire to take the course for credit.

November has been a month of meetings for all ten Southeastern Alumni Chapters. School representatives were present for all meetings: Alabama, D. C., Florida, Georgia, Maryland, Missouri, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, and Virginia. Reports from the chapters indicate a growing enthusiasm and spirit of support for our school. All chapters elected new officers for 1974-75. These will be indicated very shortly through the Outlook.

The process which will lead to the selection of a Dean of the Faculty is moving along. The Faculty Committee and President Lolley brought the preliminary draft of a working paper for a job description and qualifications to the Faculty in a special session Monday night, November 25. The working paper is now being revised to incorporate many of the opinions shared by the Faculty. In time the completed document will be adopted by the Faculty and recommended by President Lolley to the Trustees. It is believed unanimously that this process will yield a very satisfactory decision regarding the crucial post of Dean in our school.

SELECTION OF A
DEAN

A Faculty study committee is hard at work with President Lolley in a study of the orderly growth and development of the Faculty at Southeastern. The years ahead appear a bit unpredictable at best, and it will take the very best thinking and planning possible to equip our school through the Faculty for the work to be done.

FACULTY DEVELOPMENT

The Seminary family joined in celebration of the Lord's Supper on Thanksgiving Eve, during chapel. Deacons from Wake Forest Baptist Church assisted in the worship. The Lord's Supper was planned by the Student Coordinating Council and led by President Lolley.

THANKSGIVING
WORSHIP

December 18 is the final day of classes for the Fall semester, 1974. Anyway one chooses to measure it, this has been a very fine semester for our school. Faculty and student involvement in the serious business of learning has been significant and wholesome.

FALL SEMESTER
ENDS

Students presented, in Southeastern's Cellar Theater, three performances of Inherit the Wind, November 19, 20, 21. The work was particularly well received and gratitude is expressed to the students and to Dr. Max Rogers who served as faculty advisor. There has been talk of perhaps one additional performance during the Spring semester.
