The Seminary Hymn

Ordained of God, His Prophets rise,
They seek not gain nor earthly prize,
They heed the challenge of Christ's call,
They ask to give and spend their all.

Our message be the gospel plain,
Our joy its power o'er sin's dark stain;
Born from above the sinner lives,
New life in Christ the Spirit gives!

Bind us together now, we pray,
As from this place we go today.
And keep our feet in paths made light,
By Jesus' truth and glory bright! Amen.

Jim Henry - Guest Speaker

Dr. James B. Henry is the pastor of First Baptist Church in Orlando, Florida, and currently serves as the president of the Southern Baptist Convention. He received a B.A. degree from Georgetown College and B.D. and M.Div. degrees from New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary, where he was president of the student body. Dr. Henry has served in numerous capacities within Southern Baptist life, including trusteeships at the Sunday School and Foreign Mission Boards as well as president of the SBC Pastor's Conference and a membership on the SBC Peace Committee. His pulpit ministry reaches beyond the walls of the church to the citizens of Central Florida via a weekly television broadcast. Dr. Henry and his wife, Jeanette, have three children: Kitty, Betsy, and Jim II.

Academic Regalia

The hoods, gowns, and caps worn in academic ceremonies today are modified versions of clothing worn by ecclesiastics and students in the 12th and 13th centuries. They wore gowns and hoods to their lectures, probably for warmth in the damp, unheated halls where classes were held.

The designs and colors of these costumes have come to symbolize the level of academic attainment and the institution attended.

Robes - The bachelor's robe has an elaborate yoke but is otherwise a plain garment with a closed, pleated front and long, full-pointed sleeves. The master's robe is identifiable by its sleeves, cut for the arm at the wrist and just above the elbow, which have a distinctive oblong back and are squared at the ends. The doctor's robe, full cut and with voluminous long sleeves, is distinguished by its rich velvet trim. Robe-length front panels and velvet sleeve bars are either black or symbolize, by their color, the field in which the doctorate was obtained.

Caps - Graduates of American colleges and universities wear a stiff mortarboard that matches the robe in color and material. European universities are somewhat less rigid in the style of their caps. Tassels are usually black but may represent the degree held by the wearer. Tassels worn by doctors may be black or gold.

Hoods - The color or colors symbolize the college or university granting the degree, and the velvet trim denotes the field of study. A long hood with velvet trim represents a doctor's degree. The hood trim colors most frequently seen are signified by the following:

Scarlet	Theology	Purple	Law
Light Blue	Education	Dark Blue	Philosophy
White	Arts, Letters, Humanities	Pink	Music
