STATE VISITS: Representatives of the Church-Minister Relations Office of three state conventions will be on campus the last two weeks of March. Graduating seniors interested in opportunities for ministry in Virginia, South Carolina and Georgia may make individual appointments through the Field Education Office. Other activities are as follows:

(1) Virginia: Tuesday, March 22, 12:00 noon. Luncheon for Virginia students and graduating seniors interested in Virginia as guests of Mr. James Massey. Go through cafeteria line and meet in small dining room.

(2) South Carolina: Tuesday, March 29, 10:30 a.m. S.C. students are invited to have coffee with Mr. Charles Rabon in the cafeteria following chapel.

(3) Georgia: Friday, April 1, 10:00 a.m. Georgia students are invited to meet Mr. Howard Ethington in the Bethea Room during the open hour.

SUMMER MINISTRY IN CAMPING: There are various openings for work and ministry in Baptist Boys Camps in Virginia. There is one seashore camp and one mountain camp and school. If you think you might be interested, there will be a slide presentation and question and answer time on Thursday, March 24 at 8:00 p.m. in the second floor library auditorium. A Boys' Camp representative, Mr. Lloyd Jackson of the Baptist Men's Department of Virginia, will be here for interviews on March 31 from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon. Sign up in the Field Education Office.

SUPERVISED INTERNSHIPS:

Applications still being accepted and interviews will be held the last week of March for two internships. Further information is available in the Field Education office.

(1) Juvenile Justice Internship: Chaplain Service of Virginia. Intern serves as chaplain of a juvenile correctional institution in Richmond, Virginia. A student from the Richmond area could work parttime on weekends.

(2) Intern in Adult and Youth Work: Georgia Avenue Baptist Church in suburban Washington, D.C. A senior who could complete requirements at the Urban Studies Center and remain on the staff after graduation is preferred.
