NOTICES:

IT'S O.K. TO BE CHICKEN...

...as long as you get off your roost and fly on over to the Bloodmobile, second floor, Mackie Hall, from 11:00-4:30 on Tuesday, November 8th. There is a tremendous need for donors in our region which requires approximately 850 pints of blood to be donated daily to supply the demands of area hospitals. So, will you roll up your feathers, I mean sleeves, and help meet these needs? The Bloodmobile is open to all donors, so encourage your family and friends to participate with you.

STUDENT WORK OPPORTUNITY:

Mr. Rick Bowman, a representative of Radio Shack stores in Raleigh will be in the Commons Room of Mackie Hall from 9:00-11:00 a.m. on Wednesday, November 9. He will be available to talk with students who are interested in parttime work immediately and/or during Christmas holidays.

M. DIV.

JUNIOR CLASS:

To: Junior M. Div. students. From: David Upshaw. As your representative to the Student Council, I need to know your suggestions and ideas. Feel free to share with me what's on your mind. I represent your views and can be reached at 556-2174 or in Johnson Dorm, room 220.

BIBLE STUDY:

The Wakefield Apartments Bible study will be held on Tuesday, November 8 at 7:30 p.m. at 3218-H Calumet Drive. All husbands and wives are invited.

ACME:

The Wake Forest chapter of ACME (Association of Couples for Marriage Enrichment) will hold its monthly meeting Saturday, November 12 at 10:00 a.m. in the Bethea Room of Appleby Hall. The program will be a discussion of Gayle Sheehy's bestseller, Passages. All interested couples are welcome.
