PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Co-Laborer in Kingdom Enterprise:

It is imperative that you not misplace this informative and sometimes humorous publication. It is a far more valuable resource than you might initially imagine. I implore you to take heed of my suggestion as I shall provide several illustrations to demonstrate the possibilities of its significance for the present and future.

First and foremost, this publication will come in rather handy as a source of reference as you attend classes. Study groups will be fashioned throughout each semester and projects may require discussions with fellow classmates. Hence, this book provides all the personal information of those with whom you are in school with the added benefit of a picture. And too, it can be frustrating and even embarrassing to run into someone and not be able to recall their name, but with this handy-dandy publication you have the opportunity to literally "look them up."

Secondly, you will one day greatly appreciate the hard work and diligent preparation your professors have demanded from you. This book will provide the priceless photos of those people who pushed you and demanded the very best, thus providing a precious keepsake of each one who has made some contribution or lasting impression upon your life.

Lastly, your grandchildren will get an absolute hoot out of it. Just imagine how the hair styles and chic fashions of today will be ancient to them. In a few years, this publication has the potential to provide hours and hours of entertainment to those who come behind you. What better way to pass a rainy day than by collapsing on the floor in hysterical laughter at Grandpa way back when?

Thus, my point being that you should keep this book. Hold onto it as you have your old yearbooks and annuals—or church directories, for that matter. These pictures of your colleagues in Kingdom Enterprise will be of tremendous value to you for years to come. Friends that you make here are for eternity; some of them will become accountability partners and best buddies—even if you are halfway around the world from each other. You need at least one good photo to reminisce about how precious they are, because it may be years before you see them again. Just take my word for it—keep the book!

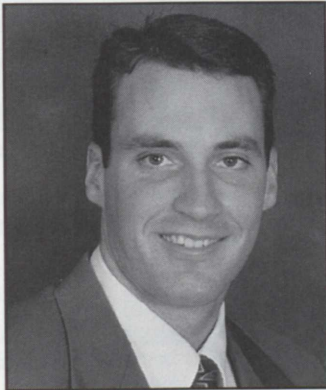

May God bless you as you labor as a student here at Southeastern Seminary!

Until He Comes,

Paige Patterson

STUDENT BODY PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The Student Leadership Team of Southeastern Seminary welcomes you to God's country. By the time you receive this book, you will have developed patterns that you will follow during your time at Southeastern. However, I want to challenge you to evaluate those patterns by the following three criteria which, I believe, will make your experience in Seminary more fruitful.

First, recall why you are here. Love for our heavenly father, the desire to serve Him, and to know Him more fully should be the reason you came to Seminary. Do not let class assignments supplant your personal quiet times with God, and do not allow your busy schedule to shorten your prayer time. If you have a family, budget your obligations properly so that you can spend time with them. Your life here will be busy, but the future will hold even more tasks that must be completed. So begin developing good time management skills now.

Second, remember to utilize your gifts. Begin by joining and becoming involved in a local church. Times will arise when you need a loving pastor. Cultivate this pastoral relationship now so that it will be available when needed. Next, you should become engaged in campus ministries. Weekly chapel services provide an admirable model of church services, so attend as many as possible. Also remember the prayer rooms, Doulos, B.S.U., and Student Wives Fellowship. It is imperative for both students and spouses to be involved on campus. All people need strong Christian friends to whom they can turn in times of difficulty.

Lastly, recognize that friends are what makes seminary special. Within the pages of this book are the faces of many people. These people all have names and stories of their own—get to know as many of them as possible. One of the most important activities at seminary is making friends. Friends made here will last a lifetime. I strongly encourage you to find one close friend to serve as your accountability partner—pray together, memorize scripture, and ask each other the difficult questions. Have you witnessed this week? How have your quiet times been? How are you treating your family? Then, find as many good friends as possible. What better friends to have than men and women who have dedicated their lives to serving our Lord. These people will be a valuable source of encouragement in future days, and when you look back through these pages you will be touched by the meaning each face holds in your heart.

I hope these few things presently exist in your life. If not, I challenge you to make them part of your seminary experience. The Student Leadership Team is here to help you in anyway possible. I look forward to serving you this upcoming year, and I pray that God will richly bless your life.

Because of Him,

Thomas White
