CORRESPONDING LETTER

The Oconee Old School Baptist Association now in session with the church at Rock Springs, to her Sister Associations and with whom we correspond, sendeth Christian salutations:

Dear Brethren: We are again by an All-wise God permitted to hold another peaceful session of our body, for which we humbly hope we are thankful. Your Elders have come preaching salvation by Grace and Grace alone, for which we have been made to rejoice once more in our dear Savior.

While meditating here for a few moments our mind runs back to our dear old Brother's text in the beginning of this meeting: "Stand ye in the way." How beautifully it was set forth, as one of the old writers declared, "Straight is the way," and our dear Lord said Himself, "I am the way;" and it makes our hearts feel glad when we hear the dear Brethren testifying to the same as of one mind, as the poet expressed it, "What wondrous love is this, oh, my soul!"

Although your correspondence is not as full as we would like, yet it makes us feel glad that you still remember us.

The next session of our body will be held with the church at Lystra, Madison county, Ga., 4 miles from Comer, Ga., Second Sunday, Friday and Saturday before, in October, 1922.

U. M. MALCOM,
W. L. ALLEN,
W. H. HARRISON,

—Committee.

CIRCULAR LETTER

The Oconee Old School Baptist Association in session with the church at Rock Springs, Morgan county, Ga., October 7th, 8th and 9th, 1921, to the several churches of which it is composed, Greetings:

Dearly Beloved:

With your appointment at your last session and in accordance with our custom, it has fallen to my lot to meet you with a circular letter, and I feel to say unless the Lord directs, it will be a poor letter.

I want to call your attention to the First Epistle of Paul, the Apostle to the Corinthians 2:2, 4; 5:2—“For I determined not to know anything among you save Jesus Christ and Him crucified . . . . And my speech and my preaching was not with the enticing words of man’s wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power; that your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.” And we hope today to be standing in the same faith of the Apostles and Prophets of old, and be enabled in the Spirit and in love to declare the precious truth, being enabled to lay aside the wisdom and power of man, looking unto Jesus, the Author and Finisher of our faith, for we realize we are not sufficient of ourselves to even think upon Him. So then we see, if we are able to stand we must be kept by the wisdom and power of God. We feel to hope we are directed by the same spirit, for there is not but one way of salvation and Christ says, “I am the Way, the Truth and the Life and no man can come unto me except the Father who sent me draw him.” And we hope today to be drawn by the tender cords of His love, and enable us to stand in the wisdom and power of God and not man, for the Apostle says, “To work out your own salvation with fear and trembling, for it is God who worketh in you, both to will and to do His own good pleasures.” Then we can see unless God works in us both the will and to do, we are left blank.

Now in conclusion, I want to call your attention to the 17th and 18th verses of the 16th chapter and last of Romans: “Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrines which we have learned and avoid them. . . . For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple."

J. H. STEWART.
