

Examination in Old Testament Interpretation

1. On the basis of Wellhausen's treatment of either 1) the place of worship, or 2) sacrifice, discuss the particular thesis which Wellhausen is trying to prove in that chapter and indicate his method of proof.

2. Wellhausen concludes his comparison of the Jehovist (J) with the Priestly Code as follows:

"The Jehovist still lives in the spirit of the legend, but the Priestly Code is strange to that spirit and does violence to the legend by treating it from its own point of view. The Priestly Code kills it as legend and deprives it of all real value."

Critically evaluate this statement.
