

News and Information Services
Southern Baptist Foreign Mission Board
Box 6767, Richmond, Virginia 23230

Revised November 1992

Carl W. Johnson

Carl, a layman and native of Richmond, Virginia, received the bachelor of science in business administration, master of commerce, and doctor of commercial science (honorary) degrees from the University of Richmond.

He currently serves as the vice president for finance and treasurer (chief financial officer) of the Foreign Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention.

Prior to joining the Foreign Mission Board staff in 1979, he had held various accounting and finance responsibilities in the railroad, telephone, and paper industries and, immediately prior to joining the Foreign Mission Board staff, eleven years as chief administrative and financial officer and director of a regional real estate company.

He is a deacon and president of the endowment fund of First Baptist Church in Richmond.

He has previously served

Virginia Baptists as:

President of the Baptist General Association of Virginia
Chairman of the Virginia Baptist General Board
Chairman of the Strategic Planning Committee for the 1990s

Richmond Baptists as:

Moderator of the Richmond Baptist Association

He is a former: trustee of the University of Richmond, finance officer with the Virginia Air National Guard, board member of the Richmond Ballet, and adjunct faculty member at Virginia Commonwealth University.

His wife Douglas is a family nurse practitioner, and they have two grown children: Melissa, a social worker, and Michael, a business consultant.