NOTICES:

GUESTS ON CAMPUS:

Southeastern alumni and other guests will be on campus this week to participate in two conferences held in conjunction with the Adams Lectures. The seventeenth annual Pastors' Seminar will begin Monday evening and continue through the week. The Chaplains' Conference involving military and institutional chaplains will be held Tuesday and Wednesday, February 10-11. We welcome these guests to Southeastern.

AVERETTE COLLEGE ALUMNI:

All Averette College alumni are invited to a luncheon and fellowship in the cafeteria on Thursday, February 12, at 12 noon. The Dean and Vice President of Averette will be present to hear what has been happening in your life. There will be no charge for the meal. Contact Margaret Tyree at 556-6202.

SEMINARY WOMEN:

Put an end to those winter blues and come shape up at the aerobic dance exercise classes on Wednesdays in the gym from 5:00-6:00 p.m. All women seminary students, staff and seminary wives are welcomed. No fee is charged. Come dressed to workout.

GOT A TALENT?

Show it off at the annual Mission and Ministry Conference Student/Faculty Variety Show: February 21 at 9:00 p.m. The unusual will be the usual for this bill of fare. Interested faculty, staff and students should contact Don Bass (834-5683) or Doug Murray (556-1543) for more information. This is your big chance mon amour.

SUMMER MISSION OPPORTUNITIES:

Mission opportunities in Michigan, Virginia and Georgia will be available this summer through enrollment in H2324. Mr. John Sneddler of the Home Mission Board will be on campus Tuesday, February 17 to interview those who are interested. Sign up in Formation In Ministry office.

TEL DAN EXCAVATION:

Attention - prospective volunteers for the TEL DAN summer excavation. Application blanks for the Zion Research Foundation Student Travel Scholarships in the amount of $900.00 are now in Professor Scoggin's office. Come by for forms and information.

SOCIAL CLUB OUTING:

The Social Club will be meeting at the Women's Dorm at 5:00 p.m. on Saturday, February 14 to go to the Barbeque Lodge for supper. We will return by 7:00. Those who are interested will then go to an auction from 7:30-9:30 on U.S. 1A in Forestville. The auction has anything from $1 up. Cost is $4.50 for an all-you-can-eat supper. The auction is free. Call Weymon Bartlett, 556-6331, Johnson 328, for more information.

NATIONAL PARKS MINISTRY:

Brian Swedberg, a representative of "A Christian Ministry in the National Parks" will be on campus the evening of February 12 and the morning of February 13 to interview interested persons. A slide presentation will be given at 10 a.m. on Friday, 2/13 in the A.V. auditorium of the Library. Sign up in FIM for interviews.

MMPI EVALUATIONS:

Minnesota Multiphasic Personality Inventory evaluations have been received for students who entered this semester. Those who wish to review these results should make an appointment with the Counseling Office, ext. 217. All students are reminded that counseling services are available at the Health Center office or at the Life Enrichment Center in Raleigh.

CAMP COUNSELOR:

Dr. Lloyd Jackson will be on campus Wednesday, February 11 to interview students interested in a 10 week summer position as a R.A. Counselor at a Virginia camp. Contact FIM to schedule an interview.

FINAL REGISTRATION FOR BI/POLAR SEMINAR:

Friday, February 13, 1981, is the last day to register for the Winter BI/POLAR SEMINAR! Early registration is necessary in order to complete and receive computer processed inventory materials which are used in the seminar. The date of the Seminar is Friday (7:00 to 10:00 p.m.) and Saturday (9:00 to 12:00 a.m., and 1:00 to 4:00 p.m.), February 27-28, 1981. The Seminar provides for the discovery, identification and creative use of one's strengths as well as for an understanding of how others use their strengths. To register, or for additional information, contact Professor Bob Poerschke, Room 301, Stealey Hall, SEBTS.

HOUSING NEEDED:

The 1981 Mission and Ministry Conference "Singing the Song in a Strange Land" will be held here at Southeastern the weekend of February 20-22. 300+ participants from colleges and universities in North Carolina and other southeastern states are expected, and we desperately need your help in housing these students. If you can be of assistance, please contact either Martha Vertrees at 556-6236 or the Student Affairs office, ext. 263.

MONEY MANAGEMENT SEMINAR:

"Money Management and the Minister's Finances" is a seminar being offered by the Annuity Board of the Southern Baptist Convention. Mr. Sam O'Neal and Mr. Frank Schwall from Baptist State Convention of N.C. will be coordinating the program designed especially for seminary students. The seminar will be held Tuesday, February 17 in the Bethea Room from 3-9 p.m. Topics will include budgeting, taxes, insurance, retirement programs, wills and others. Seminar participants will be guests of the Annuity Board at a buffet dinner in the seminary cafeteria. No registration fee is charged but participants should make reservation by February 13 in the Student Affairs office or at the switchboard.
