Dear Committee Member:

Re: Your bill assignment

SJR 7 SB 188

As many of you already know the next meeting of the Human Rights Committee will take place on March 19, 1983 at the LAX Hyatt. Mary Vail will be sending you a meeting notice and agenda in the near future.

So far we have 26 new bills to discuss at our meeting. The above referenced bill(s) has been assigned to you for review. Please make certain that you submit either a written or oral report to Gary Bostwick or me if you are unable to attend the meeting.

While you are reviewing the bill(s) assigned to you, you may find it helpful to glance at the committee meeting minutes to see if anyone else on the committee already has some knowledge on the subject, and to see whether there is a related bill. Also please remember to get up to date information about the status of the bill(s) before coming to the meeting.

Each of you should be receiving SB 123, the budget bill, from the State Bar lobbyist's office. The bill has not been assigned to anyone for review, but I would like each of you to glance through it to see if you notice the elimination or reduction of any program which involves human rights.

I know that we are asking alot of each of you. Thank you for your hard work. Please give me a call if I can help you with anything.

Regards,

Ellyn
