NOTICES:

I.D.'s: I.D.'s made for new students during orientation may be picked up at the Library Circulation Desk after 12 noon on Tuesday, August 30.

CHOIRS ON CAMPUS: Students and members of the seminary community are welcome to sing in either of the choirs available on campus. Cantata Choir meets on Thursdays from 3:00-4:30 in Binkley 101 and sings primarily anthem literature in chapel worship. Seminary Choir meets on Tuesday evenings from 7:00-8:30 PM in Binkley 101 and will be preparing music for the seminary Christmas Concert on December 6. All are welcome, especially women. For more information contact Dr. Michael Hawn or come to the first rehearsal during the first week of classes.

SEMINARY YOUTH SWIM PARTY: On Saturday, Sept. 3 from 6:00 PM - 8:00 PM, a seminary youth swim party will be held at Wake Forest Community Pool, Holden Park. The seminary youth group is made up of student and faculty youth ages 13 - 19 years of age.

LIBRARY WORKSHOP: A Library Workshop scheduled with commuters in mind will be available Tuesday evening, August 30, from 7:00 PM - 9:00 PM. Entering students and other persons interested in more effective use of the library will be welcome. Content of the workshop is based on the questions most frequently asked or problems most often encountered by users. Place: Audiovisual auditorium, 2nd floor of the Library. Please register at the Circulation or Reference Desk by noon Tuesday so that sufficient handout material may be prepared.

WOMEN'S FORUM: The women students of SEBTS sponsor a forum for the seminary family. "Women's Forum" will meet on the first Thursday of each month. Exceptions will be announced. The first Women's Forum will be Thursday, Sept. 8 in the basement of the Women's Dorm. Ms. Anne Neill will be speaking on "Servanthood".

(OVER)

HALL MEETINGS: All dormitory students are urged to attend all announced Hall Meetings. A revised copy of the Housing Regulations and Policies should be obtained from your Hall Manager. Each dormitory resident is to sign and return to the Hall Manager the revised Dormitory Occupancy Agreement. Direct questions to your Hall Manager or to Brenda Kneece, Residence Life Counselor, ext. 261 or 263.

"PRAISE CELEBRATION": A Praise Celebration of Christian music and worship will take place on the steps of Binkley Chapel, Sept. 8 at 7:00 PM. The service is sponsored jointly by the Seminary Council and Seminary Wives. The entire family is invited to attend so bring your blankets and lawn chairs. Refreshments will be served by the Seminary Wives. Dr. Lolley will be the Master of Ceremonies. Other participants are Delos Miles, Karen and Hal Bilbo, Frank Banas, Ed Digh, Michael Dunegan, Mike Gibson, Gale Green, Michael Hawn, Tom and Jana Preston and Ben Vogler.

RECYCLING: You CAN help the needy of Wake County by depositing empty soft drink cans in the collection barrels located in all campus buildings. These cans are a resource, not trash. Cans collected during the past year brought $125, which went to help defray food and fuel expenses. Here's an opportunity for good stewardship and ministry. Please help!

CEPP: Interested in getting some practice preaching? The Cooperative Education Program in Preaching (CEPP) offers opportunities to preach in nearby churches. If interested, contact Lynn Camp in FIM. If you signed up in the spring, please write down dates which are not open for you to preach and give them to Lynn.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED: Volunteers are needed to deliver meals to the home-bound elderly in Wake Forest from 11:30 AM- 1:00 PM, Monday through Friday. Contact Mary Holland at 833-2297.

VISITORS ON CAMPUS: On Thursday afternoon, Sept. 1, the Kings Mountain Baptist Association will be touring the campus.

COMMUNITY SCHOOL OPPORTUNITIES: Painting, sewing, photography, typing, computer language, aerobics ... these are just a few of the courses to be offered on Thursday evenings at Wake Forest-Rolesville High School beginning Sept. 22. For more information, pick up a copy of the brochure in the Business Office or Communications Office. See Rod Byard in the Communications Office for details.

LOST AND FOUND: Two pot holders and one butter knife were found at the picnic this past Thursday night. Please claim them at the Switchboard.

CAMPUS BULLETIN: The Campus Bulletin is an information/communications service provided by the Student Affairs office for the seminary community. Students, faculty and staff may use this service by submitting notices and announcements to the Student Affairs office in Mackie Hall. Notices must be signed and no more than 130 words in length. Items should be limited to on-campus events or services of interest to the seminary community. The weekly deadline is 12 noon on Wednesdays.

SECULAR EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES: All entering students who wish to be considered for secular employment opportunities must complete the orange colored Secular Employment Profile form included in your orientation materials. If you did not return the form to your peer group leader, please do so as soon as possible, or bring it to the Student Affairs office, second floor, Mackie Hall.

FLAG FOOTBALL SIGN-UP: All men interested in playing Flag Football should sign up on the Student Affairs bulletin board in Appleby (first floor). Sign up deadline is Wednesday, Sept. 7.

All material submitted for the Campus Bulletin should be in the Student Affairs office by 12 noon Wednesday.
