

EVELYN ROBINSON (MRS. BILLY L.) BULLINGTON

Born: Sept. 26, 1937, in San Antonio, Texas, and considers Arkadelphia, Ark., her hometown.

Education: Attended Ouachita Baptist College (now University), Arkadelphia, Ark., for three years.

Married: Billy Bullington, born in Charleston, Ark.

Children: Two grown children.

Previous assignment: Appointed missionary to Togo in March 1966. Language study in Tours, France, 1966-67; church and home worker in Lome, Togo, 1967-77; Accra, Ghana, 1977-82. Church and home worker in Abidjan, Ivory Coast, where her husband served as associate to the area director for non English-speaking West Africa. Resigned June 30, 1987, when her husband became Area Director for West Africa, serving April 8, 1987 - Dec. 31, 1990. They lived in Abidjan, where he directed the work of 450 missionaries in 15 countries. Moved to Richmond, Va., where her husband was the Foreign Mission Board's Regional Vice President for Africa, Oct. 1990-Dec. 1993.

Current FMB assignment: Living in Richmond, Va., where her husband has been named as the FMB's Vice President for Overseas Services, effective Jan. 1, 1994.