

SOUTHEASTERN CAMPUS BULLETIN

OFFICE OF
STUDENT AFFAIRS

APRIL 17-21, 1978

VOL. V. NO. 28

MONDAY, APRIL 17

No scheduled activities

TUESDAY, APRIL 18

10:00 a.m. Chapel: Miss Phyllis Mayo, Soprano, middler student in the Master of Divinity Program.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 19

10:00 a.m. Chapel: Dr. J. D. Hughey, Secretary for Europe and the Middle East, Foreign Mission Board, SBC.

THURSDAY, APRIL 20

10:00 a.m. Chapel: Church Growth Emphasis program. Dr. Bruce Powers, presiding. See details below.

FRIDAY, APRIL 21

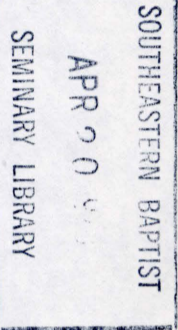

10:00-10:45 a.m. Senior coffee for graduating seniors interested in the Church Growth Emphasis. Cafeteria.

NOTICES:

CHURCH GROWTH EMPHASIS: The Church Growth Emphasis, April 20-21, will include the chapel service Thursday morning, a display area in Mackie Hall, opportunities for discussions with resource persons, interest conferences on Thursday evening, a Senior Coffee on Friday morning, and drop-in luncheons for persons interested in pastoral ministries (Thursday) and educational ministries (Friday). The resource persons include: Dr. Reginald McDonough, author of Working With Volunteer Leaders in the Church, and Leading Your Church in Long Range Planning; Dr. John Hendrix, author of Christian Education: Experiential Education, The Sounds of Discipleship, Gifts and Discipleship, and Nexus; and Mancil Ezell, author of Youth in Bible Study/New Dynamics, Making Non-Projected Visuals and Displays, and Being Creative (co-author). Conferences featuring these persons will be held in Appleby on Thursday, 3-4:15, 4:30-5:45 and 7-8:15. Complete schedules for the Church Growth Emphasis will be posted and available in Mackie and in Appleby.

CHAGALL EXHIBIT: Through April 24, the Student Council Arts Committee and the Student Affairs office will be hosting the second traveling art exhibition made available by the N.C. Museum of Art. This exhibit is composed of 18 etchings selected from the 105 which Marc Chagall did to illustrate, "The Bible!" This was a 2 volume edition of the Old Testament published in 1957. His focus is on the role of man, rather than of the Devine. The exhibition can be seen in the Mackie Hall conference room Monday through Friday.

HOME MISSION OPPORTUNITIES: On April 19-21, Mr. Ken Brooks of the Home Mission Board will be available to talk with students, and especially seniors, about missionary appointment. Interviews may be arranged through the Field Education Office. Dr. Brooks will also be speaking to the Field Education classes at 9:00 and 11:00 on Thursday in A205. Visitors are welcome.

MINISTRY OPPORTUNITIES: Mr. Bill Carr Jr., Director of Missions, the Florida Keys Baptist Association, will be on campus Monday evening, April 17 and most of the day and evening of April 18. He will be here to talk to graduating seniors who may be interested in doing mission type service in the Florida Keys. Sign up for appointments in the Field Education office. First Baptist Church, Moultrie, Georgia is looking for a summer youth worker-music not required (June through August). Central Baptist Church, Johnson City, Tenn., needs Music/Youth Director for the summer. South Hill, Va. is still looking for a student or couple to live in the South Hill area and commute to the seminary. Lead one or two choirs and general youth work in a good program. Salary above average. Several fulltime Minister of Music jobs are open in this and nearby states. See Dr. Richardson. Two more summer jobs are available: First Baptist Church, Ervin, Tenn., needs youth and music director. A Williamsburg, Va. church needs summer youth director. Check with Field Education office.

GRADUATING SENIORS: Invitations and calling cards for graduates have arrived. They can be picked up in the Business Office. Caps and gowns will be issued from May 1 to May 12. Accounts must be paid at that time.

WOMEN IN CHURCH-RELATED VOCATIONS: The Student Government Association is now in the process of raising money to send seven of our women students to the nationwide Consultation on Women in Church-related Vocations. Our representatives are: Marie Bean, Debbie Knight, Pat Burchette, Rachel Smith, Lynn Davis Christal Williams, and Debra Griffis. Our goal is to raise $1000 from students and faculty. A table will be set up in the Commons Room this Wednesday and Thursday. If you wish to make a contribution you can do so then or anytime before then by seeing Bill Duke, Rick Trexler, David Upshaw or Gayle Strickland. Your help is appreciated.

CAMPUS WORK: Students interested in summer employment and/or parttime employment during the next school year may apply at the Building and Grounds Office between April 17-May 1. Openings will soon be available for custodians, painters or other student positions.

Information for the Campus Bulletin is due in the Student Affairs Office by 12 noon each Thursday. All material must be signed and include a telephone number.

CAMPUS BULLETIN
SOUTHEASTERN

STUDENT AFFAIRS
OFFICE OF

APR 17 1968